

Diocese of Des Moines
Catholic Campaign for Human Development
Local Funding Application

The Catholic Campaign for Human Development is one of the largest private funders of self-help programs for poor people in the United States. It was established in 1970 by Catholic bishops of the United States. Projects funded by the national office are initiated and led by poor people. The purpose is to identify and fund permanent solutions to poverty in the U.S.

Twenty-five percent of the funds raised in an annual November collection remain in central and southwest Iowa to help us respond to needs in the local community.

Parishes and other groups in the 23 counties of the Diocese of Des Moines can apply for grants from the local portion of the Catholic Campaign for Human Development collection. Typically grants will be made for no more than $1,500.

The application will then be screened by a local committee. The committee will recommend projects for funding to the bishop.

All application must be accompanied by a current W-9 form

The parish or group will be notified of the decision. The diocese reserves the right to fund any amount or to decline to fund any projects.

The deadline for CCHD grant applications is December 5, 2017

Types of Projects

The Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) funds projects in our diocese to help people break the cycle of poverty for a lifetime.

All projects funded must conform to the social teachings of the Catholic Church

Applicant organizations must not participate in or promote activities that contradict the moral and social teachings of the Catholic Church and must in no way work against the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops' priorities to defend human life and dignity, strengthen family life and the institution of marriage, and foster diversity. For example, applicant organizations that support or promote, discrimination, capital punishment, abortion, euthanasia, punitive measures or same-sex marriage towards immigrants are not eligible for CCHD funding
